Frontend Developer Interview Scorecard

| Candidate Name: Role Interviewed: Interviewer: Date: | |
|--|---|
| Dimensions | |
| • Technical Leadersh | ip — Score (1–5): |
| pragmatic technical trade-offs, mentors s | decisions and relies on others for core design choices. 3: Makes decisions for team scope and participates in design reviews. 4: Anticipates senior engineers, and drives code quality improvements. 5: Defines long-term at reduces debt and scales across teams. |
| 1-2: Misses commitroplanned features on | n — Score (1–5): nents, fails to remove blockers, and delivery is erratic. 3: Consistently delivers schedule and resolves impediments. 4: Optimizes team processes to increase ictability. 5: Orchestrates complex, multi-team deliveries ahead of schedule with |
| 1-2: Provides little fe Conducts regular 1: | edback, unclear expectations, and weak performance management. 3: Is, sets goals, and addresses performance issues. 4: Coaches managers and g team capability and retention. 5: Builds high-performing teams with clear easurable growth. |
| 1-2: Creates or acce | pts brittle designs and avoids system-level thinking. 3: Designs scalable ents key trade-offs for team-level systems. 4: Drives refactors and patterns that nd operational cost. 5: Defines architecture standards and solutions that support |
| 1-2: Communicates PMs and partners, c | llaboration — Score (1–5): poorly with stakeholders and causes misalignment on priorities. 3: Aligns with ommunicates risks, and negotiates scope. 4: Proactively resolves dependencies act trade-offs. 5: Builds strategic partnerships and shapes roadmaps across |

zythr.com Page 1 of 1

ZYTHR

1-2: Does not participate effectively in hiring; interviews lack structure. 3: Conducts solid interviews and helps fill open roles within expected timelines. 4: Improves interviewing rubric and increases candidate quality. 5: Scales hiring cadence, builds pipelines, and reduces time-to-hire measurably.

Metrics & Operational Excellence — Score (1–5):

1-2: Lacks metrics, incidents recur, and there is no remediation process. 3: Tracks key metrics, responds to incidents, and reduces recurring issues. 4: Uses data to drive engineering improvements and SLA adherence. 5: Establishes org-level SLOs, reduces MTTR, and improves reliability proactively.

Overall Evaluation

Strengths Observed:

Concerns / Weaknesses:

Recommendation (Yes / No / With Reservations):

Final Score (Avg / Weighted):

zythr.com Page 1 of 2